

REPRESENTATIVE U. S. TREASURY,
FRED A. STOCKS.

WORLD'S COLUMBIAN EXPOSITION.

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT EXHIBIT.

BOARD OF MANAGEMENT.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 1st, 1893.

Colonel O. C. Bosbysshell,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:

I enclose you my letter of recommendation to the Secretary of the Treasury asking for the detail of Mr. Oliver M. Bosbysshell to assist in the care and custody of the machine in the Mint Exhibit at the World's Columbian Exposition. Upon it you will find the endorsment of the Acting Secretary, declining to make the detail and suggesting that he will consider a request for the detail of some other competent person. Mr Beekley will write you in regard to this matter, and I will be pleased to make any recommendation that you and he should agree upon. Please return enclosure to me at your convenience.

You were kind enough when here to say that if any of the new members of the Board desired the badge which you had made that you would furnish them. I would be pleased if you would send me two additional badges, one for Mr. W. W. Rockhill, Representative of the State Department, and another for F. W. Clarke, Representative of the Interior Department.

Thanking you for numerous courtesies, I am
Respectfully,

Representative, Treasury Department.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 183

World's Columbian Exposition,
United States Government Exhibit,
Board of Management.
Chicago, Ill.
September 1, 1893

Colonel O.C. Bosbyshell,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:

I enclose you my letter of recommendation to the Secretary of the Treasury asking for the detail of Mr. Oliver M. Bosbyshell to assist in the care and custody of the machine in the Mint Exhibit at the World's Columbian Exposition. Upon it you will find the endorsement of the Acting Secretary, declining to make the detail and suggesting that he will consider a request for the detail of some other competent person. Mr. Beekley will write you in regard to this matter, and I will be pleased to make any recommendation that you and he should agree upon. Please return enclosure to me at your convenience.

You were kind enough when here to say that if any of the new members of the Board desired the badge which you had made that you would furnish them. I would be pleased if you would send me two additional badges, one for Mr. W.W. Rockhill, Representative of the State Department, and another for F.W. Clarke, Representative of the Interior Department.

Thanking you for numerous courtesies, I am
Respectfully,
Fred. A. Stocks
Representative, Treasury Department.